Product: Letter of Credit (LC)

Date: / /

1. What is this product about?

A Letter of Credit (LC) is also known as a Documentary Credit and it constitutes an irrevocable and definite undertaking of the Issuing Bank to honour a complying presentation. It can be issued at Sight (immediate payment) or Usance (payable on a future date) basis, depending on instructions given by the buyer (Applicant).

An LC is basically a documentary instrument provided by banks in order to facilitate trade settlement. The LC Issuing Bank issues a written undertaking at the request and in accordance with the instructions of the buyer (Applicant) to the Advising Bank who advises the LC to the seller (Beneficiary). The Issuing Bank or Confirming Bank (if any) assures payment to the Beneficiary as long as they present documents which comply with the terms and conditions of the LC issued. Payment is assured based on documents alone and not on goods or services to which it may refer. An LC received by the Advising Bank from the Issuing Bank is an Inward Letter of Credit (ILC). When documents are presented to the Issuing / Confirming Bank with the LC, these documents are Inward bills under Letter of Credit (IBLC) for sight LCs and Usance bills under Letter of Credit (UBLC) for usance LCs. All references to LC in this document apply to IBLC, UBLC and ILC as well, unless not applicable in the context.

Product: Outward Bills for Collection (OBC)

Date: / /

1. What is this product about?

An Outward Bills for Collection (OBC) is a trade service provided by the Bank (called the Remitting Bank) to send out customer's sales/export shipping documents and collection instructions to the collecting bank in the buyer's/importer's country for presentation to the buyer (drawee) for payment. This intermediary service facilitates trade settlement on terms agreed between customer and their buyer.

The handling by the Remitting Bank of the shipping documents is based on customer's instructions in order to obtain payment or acceptance or based on other pre-determined terms and conditions in the Bank's collection instructions.

Documents for collection are subject to Uniform Rules for Collections, International Chamber of Commerce Publication No. 522 currently in force.

2. What do I get from this product?

- a) This is a payment mechanism by which a seller/exporter uses the services of banks to obtain payment from their buyer/importer. It provides a compromise between "open account" terms and payment in advance. Banks do not guarantee payment but only provide a service to collect funds as instructed. The remitting bank acts as agent for the seller/exporter (i.e. the principal).
- b) This payment method is simpler and cost efficient as compared to other trade services.

3. What are my obligations?

- a) In receiving documents for collection the Bank acts only as a collecting agent and has no obligation to examine the documents beyond the exercise of reasonable care. Therefore, you are required to provide clear instruction to the Bank on the handling of the documents.
- b) You authorize the Bank to debit your account in the Bank for the payment of commission and all customary charges and Bank Agent's charges, if any. In addition, you authorize the Bank to debit your account in the Bank with all monies so paid or for which the Bank is liable under the OBC.
- c) What are the cut-off times to observe for OBC issuance?

5. What if I fail to fulfil my obligations?

In the absence of you fixing a contract with the Bank to cover the OBC, upon the Bank's receipt of incoming funds from the Collecting Bank in relation to the OBC, the Bank shall be entitled at its absolute discretion to convert the amount received in foreign currency into Ringgit Malaysia at the Bank's prevailing counter rate of exchange before remitting the same to you.

Product: Bank Guarantee (BG)/
Standby Letter of Credit(SBLC)

Date: / /

1. What is this product about?

A Bank Guarantee (BG) is a document whereby the Bank as guarantor undertakes to pay an agreed sum if customer fails or defaults in fulfilling their obligations under the terms and conditions of the guarantee. There are instances where Standby Letters of Credit (SBLC) are issued instead of Bank Guarantees. SBLC is similar in nature and purpose to a Bank Guarantee. All references to BG in this document apply to SBLC as well, unless not applicable in the context. There are 2 types of guarantee i.e. Financial BGs and Non-Financial BGs.

A Financial Guarantee is defined as a guarantee issued by the Bank for its customer, favoring a third party under which the Bank agrees to pay the third party if the customer is unable to pay the amount due to the third party.

A Non-Financial Guarantee is broadly classified as performance bond guarantee. It is issued by the Bank for its customer favoring a third party, under which the Bank agrees to indemnify the third party should the customer fail to perform its duties / obligations of a specific contract entered into by it in accordance with the terms and conditions of that contract.

BGs should generally have an expiry date and a claim period (the period during which any claims on the BG must be received by the Guarantor). All BGs issued must be specific as to the amount and period of liability, including claim period.

2. What do I get from this product?

a) The BG constitutes a formal and trustworthy undertaking that supports business needs.

3. What are my obligations?

a) You shall pay the Bank's commission at the rate stipulated by the Bank on each BG issued and such payment shall be made upon the issuance of the BG.
